Nothing in this Article will prevent the employee from having the full rights and benefits of this collective agreement, including the right to grieve. [New 2012]

ARTICLE 5 - SENIORITY5.01 DEFINITION OF SENIORITY

(a) The Union is responsible for maintaining the seniority list provided the Employer provides the Union with dates of hire. Corrections to the seniority list may be made at any time upon sufficient evidence being presented to the Union by an affected employee. No grievance shall be taken for any seniority related error, action or omission which occurred prior to the signing of this collective agreement. Following the signing of this collective agreement no grievance shall be taken against the Employer for a seniority related error, action or omission provided the Employer has provided the correct hire date and has acted in accordance with the seniority list provided by the Union. [Am. 2005/Am.2008/Am. 2012]

(b) All permanent employees, including new permanent employees, shall, commencing on May 25, 2001 forward, gain seniority based on their continuous length of service from date of hire as a permanent employee in a bargaining unit position, unless specifically provided elsewhere in this collective agreement. Seniority for service prior to May 25, 2001 was calculated based on the formula set out in Article 4.01 of the collective agreement November 1, 1997 to December 31, 2000. Where two or more new employees have the same date of hire, their names will be drawn by a Union representative to determine their order on the list. [Am.2008]

When seniority, pursuant to a leave provision of this collective agreement, ceases to accrue, the employee shall retain but not further accrue seniority and her/his seniority shall be adjusted on each new seniority list.

(b) An employee on leave of absence without pay, with the exception of benefit leave and Union leaves as described in Article 5.02(a), shall continue to accrue seniority for the first ninety (90) calendar days on leave, after which seniority already accrued shall be retained but more seniority shall not be accrued until the leave ends. ARTICLE 6 - VACANCIES, APPOINTMENTS, PROMOTIONS AND TRANSFERS6.01 JOB POSTINGS

(a) Vacancies in permanent or term positions shall be posted within fourteen (14) working days of declaring the vacancy. Positions not declared vacant will not be filled by the Employer for longer than sixty (60) working days. Such positions shall be posted within the bargaining unit for a period of ten (10) working days. Vacancies will be posted on the Employer's Website. [Am. 2005]

(b) The posting shall contain an indication of whether a copy of the job description or duty list is available and if it is available, where it can be obtained; classification, nature of the position, qualifications required including education, experience and skills, hours of work, wage, job location and, if applicable, the expected term.

(c) Notwithstanding Article 6.01(a), the Employer shall not be required to re-post a position if it becomes vacant any time after it is awarded up to and including during the trial period set out in Article 6.07, in which case the Employer shall offer the job to the next most senior, qualified applicant who has not accepted another posted job. 6.03 APPOINTMENT CRITERIA

Appointments within a classification, or notwithstanding Article 6.03(c) within Property Services (Custodial) regardless of classification, will be based on seniority provided that the applicant meets the minimum qualifications for the position and subject to the following order of consideration [Am. 2012]:

- (1) permanent bargaining unit applicants;
- (2) term employees
- (3) casual employees pursuant to Article 22.03. [Am. 2013]

If no bargaining unit members apply or there are no successful applicants, consideration may be given to non-bargaining unit applicants. [Am. 2005/ Am. 2012]

(b) Consideration given to an employee pursuant to Article 6.03(a) will be made with regard to the employee's permanent status and not in regard to any term position(s) the employee may be filling or to any change in status of an employee resulting from being on leave or layoff. [New 2005]

6.03

(c) Appointments to any position outside an employee's classification except as set out in Article 6.03(a) shall be made on the basis of qualifications as required for the position, competencies as set out in the job description and seniority. In making an assessment of these factors, all shall carry equal weight. The Employer may consider the application of a senior employee for a position for which the employee does not meet the minimum qualifications. [Am. 2005]

(d) Where an appointment is made in accordance with Article 6.03(c) the Employer shall, where requested, give an unsuccessful applicant for a position the reasons why she/he was unsuccessful and advise what that person might do to improve job opportunities in the future. [Am. 2005]

(e) Appointments from within the bargaining unit shall normally be made within fourteen (14) calendar days of the end of the application period for the position.

(f) An employee with a disciplinary suspension of three (3) days or more in the twelve (12) months immediately preceding the posting shall be excluded from any appointment, transfer or promotion. [New 2005]

(g) When an employee is awarded a permanent job pursuant to a posting and at the same time is awarded a term job with more hours or higher pay, the Employer shall then offer the posted, permanent job as a term job to the next most senior, qualified applicant who has not accepted another position. If there are no such applicants the position shall be re-posted as a term position. [New 2008]

6.04 TEMPORARY VACANCY

The Employer will notify the Union of any temporary vacancy that exceeds thirty (30) working days as soon as possible and in no case more than thirty-five (35) working days beyond when the temporary vacancy began. If a temporary vacancy exceeds or is anticipated to exceed sixty (60) working days in duration, the temporary vacancy shall be posted as a term position. The employee who fills a term position shall be permitted to return to the position she/he occupied prior to the acceptance of the term position, without loss of seniority or benefits. The term position will be filled in accordance with Article 6.03. Term positions will be filled with bargaining unit members. [Am. 2005]

[Am. 2012]

- (1) the position results in a higher rate of pay;
- (2) the position results in an increase in hours worked; or

- (4) the employee moves from part time status to full time status.

[Am.2005/Am.2008/ Am. 2012]

6.05

(b) However, if the position filled in Article 6.05(a) results in less pay or fewer hours, the employee cannot use the exceptions listed in Article 6.05(a) to move again within the twelve (12) month period unless the move is to a higher paid job than the job from which she/he originally moved. [Am.2005/Am.2008]

6.06 PROBATIONARY EMPLOYEES

(a) The probationary period is an evaluation period and is used to determine an employee's suitability for appointment to a permanent position. There shall be only one (1) probationary period, but the probationary period will continue if a newly hired employee in any type of permanent position moves to any new position in the first one hundred twenty (120) calendar days from the date of hiring. [Am.2008]

(b) A newly hired employee shall be on probation for a period of one hundred and twenty (120) calendar days from the date of hiring into a permanent position. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the probationary period may be extended up to an additional forty (40) calendar days by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union. [Am.2008]

(c) A probationary employee shall be entitled to exercise her/his seniority during the probationary period for the purpose of applying for a job posting. [Am. 2005]

(e) A probationary employee shall normally receive a written performance evaluation mid-way through her/his probationary period and, if necessary, a final appraisal prior to the end of her/his probationary period. The Employer shall confirm, in writing, a new employee's appointment to permanent status within fourteen (14) calendar days of the successful conclusion of the probationary period.

(f) A probationary employee shall only be entitled to extra hours at other locations pursuant to Article 10.08 if she/he is able to complete her/his regularly assigned shifts. [New 2008]

6.07 TRIAL PERIOD

A successful applicant from the bargaining unit shall have a trial period of fifteen (15) working days during which time the employee will receive the necessary training and direction for the position. In the event the successful applicant, during the trial period, proves unsatisfactory in the position or is unable or unwilling to continue to perform the duties of the position, she/he shall be returned to her/his former position and wage without loss of seniority. Any other employee promoted or transferred because of the rearrangement of positions shall also be returned to her/his former position and wage without loss of seniority. An employee returning to her/his former position as a result of this provision shall not suffer any reduction to any other benefits to which she/he was entitled when she/he last held the position. This right to return to an employee's former position within fifteen (15) working days shall apply to members of the bargaining unit who are transferred, promoted or appointed to a non-bargaining unit position with the Employer. An employee may only exercise this right three (3) times during the life of the collective agreement. [Am. 2005]

6.08 REASSIGNMENT BY EMPLOYER

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article 6, the Employer may, in consultation with the employee and the Union, in exceptional circumstances that must be explained to the union, reassign the employee from one position to another within the employee's classification. The union will have an opportunity to present any alternatives it deems appropriate to the placement or placements for the employee who is to be reassigned. The Employer will not transfer for disciplinary reasons or solely at the request of the Principal. [Am. 2005]

An employee fully off work because of sickness and not having accrued sick leave to draw on and off work in excess of one hundred and twenty (120) calendar days will not be eligible to apply for positions pursuant to Article 6 unless she/he has an anticipated return to work date within thirty (30) working days of the closing date of the posting. [Moved and Am. 2012].

ARTICLE 7 - JOB SECURITY7.01 UNION WORK

Halifax Regional School Board's employees not in the bargaining unit shall not normally work on jobs which are included in the bargaining unit or which are similar to the job of any bargaining unit member.

7.02 VOLUNTEER WORK

The Union recognizes that the Employer may, as a result of community interest, use volunteers so long as such use does not result in displacement, lay off, down-grading or loss of regular hours or regularly scheduled overtime to members of the bargaining unit or in the reduction of the size or jurisdiction of the bargaining unit.

7.03 CARETAKER IN EACH SCHOOL

There shall be at least one (1) full-time Caretaker at each elementary school in excess of twenty-two thousand (22,000) square feet of building area and at each junior high school and each high school. No employee who is a Caretaker at the time this collective agreement is signed shall be laid off, displaced, changed in classification or have her/his hours of work reduced or changed as a result of the foregoing. However, at the first twelve (12) elementary schools of twenty-two thousand (22,000) square feet of area or less where the Caretaker position becomes permanently vacant for any reason after May 24, 2001, the Employer may then choose to cease having a full-time Caretaker at that building. [Am. 2005]

7.04 CONTRACTING

(a) The Employer recognizes the importance of job security to members of the bargaining unit and their contribution to the educational system and, therefore, agrees that it will not contract out work if it will result in the dismissal, displacement, layoff or reduction in regular hours of any bargaining unit member or if it will result in laid off members not being recalled. The Employer will provide the Union with notice prior to contracting out services and will discuss its reasons with the Union. This notice shall not be required where, in Property Services (Maintenance) or at a specific site, the service is normally contracted out or in cases where the bargaining unit does not have enough, or any, members able and available to do the work. [Am. 2012]

(b) Where schools are operated by a business, contractor or agency other than the Employer, the Employer shall attempt to have that operator utilize members of the bargaining unit in accordance with the terms of this collective agreement. If the business, contractor or agency agrees to utilize members of the bargaining unit, employees shall be placed in available positions in accordance with the Layoff and Recall and Job Posting provisions of this collective agreement and shall continue to be members of the bargaining unit. If a displaced employee chooses to accept such a position, she/he shall be considered on layoff for the purposes of recall. If the business, contractor or agency does not enter into a contract or later does not renew its contract with the Employer the Layoff and Recall provisions of this collective agreement shall apply to affected employees.

7.05 MAINTENANCE OF FULL TIME POSITIONS

- (a) This article applies only to full-time positions occupied by bargaining unit members as of the date of the signing of this collective agreement. [Am. 2005]
- (b) The elimination of a full-time position shall only be for valid operational reasons, which does not include financial reasons. Where a full-time position is eliminated for valid operational reasons, the Employer shall give notice to the Union along with full details setting out the Employer's reasons, including any supporting documentation, within three (3) working days.
- (c) Within three (3) working days of receiving the notice and reasons, the Union, if it disagrees with the decision may refer the matter to a sole arbitrator mutually agreed by the parties and shall, at the same time, send a copy of the referral to the Director of Human Resource Services or her/his designate.
- (d) The arbitrator shall review all of the circumstances of the position, including the method used by the Employer in determining the operational reasons for the decision, whether the Employer has used an appropriate method, whether the criteria has been properly applied and whether a proper conclusion was reached.
- (e) The arbitration shall be held within seven (7) calendar days of the arbitrator receiving the notice or such longer time as the arbitrator may agree with the parties. [Am. 2005]
- (f) The arbitrator may substitute his or her conclusion for the Employer's conclusion or any of the matters included in the Employer's decision, and, as appropriate, shall insofar as possible grant a full remedy to any employee who was affected by the Employer's initial decision. The arbitrator's decision shall be final and binding but shall not be considered precedential.
- (g) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Employer may choose, for financial reasons, not to fill a maximum of ten (10) vacant full-time positions during the life of this collective agreement.

7.06 CONDITIONS FOR LAYOFF

- (a) An employee may only be laid off or displaced due to lack of work. School closing periods do not in and of themselves create a lack of work. If it becomes necessary to displace or layoff an Employee because of lack of work, the Employer shall provide notice, in writing, to the employee affected and to the Union at least thirty (30) calendar days in advance, of the reasons for the displacement or layoff and shall meet with the Union to discuss means of avoiding or minimizing the displacement or layoff.
- (b) Where it becomes necessary to make staff reductions in the bargaining unit, they shall first be carried out by attrition wherever possible and only thereafter shall displacement or layoff be used.

7.07 LAYOFF PROCEDURE

(a) At the time of providing the notice of layoff or displacement or as soon as possible thereafter, the Employer shall provide the displaced employee with a complete list setting out all employees who are less senior than the displaced employee, together with their classifications and work locations. A displaced employee, subject to Article 7.07(b), shall be entitled to bump into the position of any employee with less seniority provided that she/he has the ability to do the job of that employee and that employee shall then be a displaced employee. [Am. 2005]

(b) A displaced full time employee may bump any full time or part time employee with less seniority provided she/he has the ability to do the job of that employee. A displaced part time employee may bump any part time employee with less seniority provided she/he has the ability to do the job of that employee.

(c) Where a displaced employee decides to exercise her/his bumping rights, she/he shall make her/his decision within five (5) working days of receiving the list of bumping opportunities.

7.08 WORK WHILE ON LAYOFF

(a) In order to make every effort to avoid a loss of wages, an employee who is on layoff or who has had her/his hours reduced due to lack of work shall be permitted to apply for vacant positions in accordance with this collective agreement and shall be offered all available work, of whatever length, before work is offered to employees with less seniority provided, in both cases, the employee has the ability to do the job.

(b) Notwithstanding Article 7.08(a), an employee who is on layoff and who wishes to be offered work of a duration of less than ninety (90) calendar days, must advise the Employer of her/his availability for such work.

(c) The Employer will maintain a list of those employees as described in Article 7.08(b) and will offer all available work of less than ninety (90) calendar days duration to these Employees. The Employer will not be obligated to offer the work to these Employees based on seniority.

7.09 BENEFITS WHILE ON LAYOFF

A laid off employee with her/his consent would continue to receive group life, group medical and group dental benefits while on layoff. This would be limited to a maximum of eighteen (18) months in any thirty-six (36) month period. After sixty (60) calendar days, the employee shall be responsible for payment of the entire benefit cost. [Am.2008]

7.10 RETURN FROM LAYOFF

(a) A laid off employee shall be recalled to her/his position if it becomes available within six (6) months of the layoff. However, where an employee has moved to a new position due to a bump, including if the displacement was to be only for a temporary period, she/he shall not be permitted to return to her/his position. [Am. 2005]

(b) No new employee will be hired until all laid off employees are given the opportunity to fill the job either by recall or application.

(c) Employees who have been laid off shall be offered all permanent vacant positions by seniority for which they are competent and qualified by training and experience if these positions have not been filled in accordance with Article 6. The Employer will offer the employee a maximum of three (3) permanent vacant positions for re-employment within the employee's classification, family of schools and hours of work. If the employee rejects all three (3) permanent vacant positions offered to him/her, the employee will remain on lay off for the period of time as outlined in Article 7.10(d) and the Employer will not be obligated to offer any further temporary assignments or any further permanent vacant positions to the laid off employee although the employee would maintain the right to apply for any vacant position in accordance with Article 7.08(a).

(d) If a lay off lasts for more than thirty-six (36) consecutive months, without recall, the lay off shall become a termination of employment and all recall rights shall lapse provided that any period of temporary employment shall extend this period by the amount of time worked and any period of permanent work shall end the layoff.

(e) An employee who is recalled to a permanent position shall have seven (7) working days from receipt of the notice of recall to provide the Employer with notice that she/he intends to accept the recall. If the employee is employed elsewhere she/he shall be permitted twenty (20) calendar days to return to work.

(f) Notice of recall shall be by certified mail or personal delivery and it shall be the employee's responsibility to keep the Employer advised of her/his most recent address and telephone number.

7.11 NOTICE OF TECHNOLOGICAL CHANGE

(a) "Technological Change" means the introduction by the Employer into its business of equipment, material or methods of a different nature or kind than those previously utilized by the Employer in the operation of its business or a change in the manner in which the Employer carries on the business or a change in the operation or structure of the business which is likely to affect an employee or employees to whom this collective agreement applies.

(b) In the event that the Employer intends to introduce technological changes which result in the elimination of positions within the bargaining unit, the Employer shall give sixty (60) days notice, in writing, to the employees who would be affected by such change, with a copy to the Union.

If despite reasonable efforts the Employer is unable to find a part time employee, then the Employer can, in its discretion, offer the work to a casual employee. For the purposes of offering work to part time employees outside of the school, the Employer will have satisfied its obligation to make reasonable efforts if it has made a telephone call to three (3) part time employees outside of the school and has been unable to find a part time employee to do the extra work.

(e) For the purposes of this Article 10.08, an employee will be deemed to have been offered and refused the extra work if the Employer can demonstrate it placed a call to a telephone number provided by the part time employee or where the Employer was unable to speak with the part time employee directly.

[Am. 2005]

10.09 SPECIALIZED PROJECT WORK

Positions on the special cleaning team will be posted as bargaining unit positions pursuant to Article 6. For the purposes of Article 6.03, the initial placement to a position on the special project team will be considered a promotion.

A reasonable excuse shall include, but not be limited to, sickness, vacation, inability to acquire suitable child care or excuse of a similar or urgent nature.

For employees in Property Services (Custodial), seniority will be determined based on bargaining unit seniority within the family of schools. The Employer will make reasonable efforts to offer emergency overtime equitably. [Am. 2012]
- (d) Notwithstanding the voluntary nature of overtime, an employee in Property Services (Maintenance) will be required to work reasonable amounts of overtime not to exceed two (2) hours beyond the end of her/his regularly scheduled shift without the consent of the employee, where the employee is working on an assignment which, for operational reasons, must be completed. An employee required to work such overtime shall be guaranteed a minimum of two hours pay at her/his prevailing overtime rate. [Am. 2012].
- (e) All overtime must be approved in advance by the appropriate supervisor.
- (f) No employee will be required to work overtime within eight (8) hours of the commencement of her/his regular shift.

[Am.2008]

(c) Notwithstanding Article 11.02(b), work performed on an employee's first day of rest shall be paid at the rate of one and one-half times (1.5X) for the first eight (8) hours, and at the rate of double time (2X) for all hours in excess of eight (8) hours. Notwithstanding the foregoing, where an employee is regularly scheduled to work shifts of longer than eight (8) hours pursuant to Article 10, the hours worked up to the length of the employee's regular shift on the employee's day of rest shall be paid at the rate of one and one-half times (1.5X) and at the rate of double time (2X) for all hours in excess of the length of the employee's regular shift.

An employee who is temporarily assigned to another facility or building shall be entitled to continue sharing overtime in her/his regular facility or building until the end of the first full pay period after the assignment. Such an employee will begin sharing overtime in the facility or building to which she/he has been temporarily assigned following the end of the first full pay period after the assignment and shall then not be entitled to overtime in her/his regular facility or building until she/he returns to that facility or building. [Am.2008, Am. 2012].

(a) In lieu of payment for overtime worked, an employee may choose to receive time off at the appropriate overtime rate, at a time mutually agreed upon by the employee and the Employer. If time off in lieu of overtime cannot be mutually agreed upon, the employee shall be paid the appropriate rate.

(b) The Employer shall not unreasonably refuse an employee's requested time off in lieu. The availability of vacation will not be a reason for refusing an employee's request for time off in lieu. The use of available time off in lieu of overtime will not be a reason for carrying over vacation. [New 2005]

(c) An employee may choose to cash in banked overtime at any time. However, any banked overtime for an employee in excess of forty (40) hours not taken by March 1 or not scheduled to be taken by the end of March will be paid out to the employee by the first pay in May. [New2005/Am.2008]
